

FONDAZIONE AQUILEIA

managing an archaeological site

Venice, 21st May 2012 – TECHTOUR project

Since 1998 included in the UNESCO World Heritage list

FONDAZIONE AQUILEIA

Photo by Gianluca Baronchelli

What is Fondazione Aquileia?

It is the body (foundation) in charge for the management and the valorization of the archaeological site of Aquileia. It has been established in 2008 after a Regional Law on it and an agreement between State and Friuli Venezia Giulia Region.

Shareholders:

- Italian Ministry for Culture
- Friuli Venezia Giulia Region
- Province of Udine
- Municipality of Aquileia
- Archdiocese of Gorizia

Main activities:

Conservation and restoration of archaeological remains

Excavation campaigns

Archaeological research

Tourist promotion

Preservation and restoration of mosaics

Exhibitions

Laboratories for kids

Transnational cooperation

Strategic plans for cultural development

Archaeological film festival

Conferences

Reenactement

TECHTOUR

Joint tourist promotion of Roman sites

Panel placed on the so-called Fondo Cossar where 2 important Domus have been found

Networking with other public and private bodies

Photo by Gianluca Baronchelli

Photo by Gianluca Baronchelli

Other international projects:

OPENMUSEUMS (ITA-SLO):

- 3D reconstruction

T-PAS (CULTURA 2007):

- Socio-economic analysis,
- Agenda 21 for culture,
- Touring exhibition,
- Historical research,
- Sharing experiences on archaeological sites management
- Photo context and labs for kids

SIRMIUM Città dei Cesari (FVG International cooperation):

- Training on mosaics restoration
- Support for tourist promotion of the Imperial Palace of Sremska Mitrovica

EXPO AUS (IPA Adriatic cross-border):

- Joint management of Adriatic UNESCO sites
- Tourist packages
- Restoration of Stalla Violin – infopoint

Other international projects:

Rural Development Plan 2014-2020

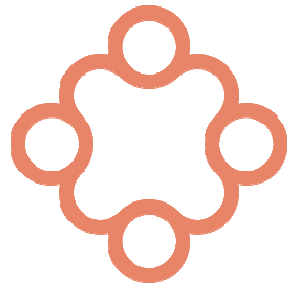

- compensation measures for archaeology

AGIRE POR 2007-2013

- twinning between northern and southern bodies managing cultural heritage

Photo by Gianluca Baronchelli

FONDAZIONE AQUILEIA

www.fondazioneaquileia.it